

ASIA WEEK SAN FRANCISCO BAY AREA ANNOUNCES DATES FOR ITS SIXTH EDITION

February 26, 2020 (San Francisco, CA) - Asia Week San Francisco Bay Area is pleased to announce dates for its sixth edition, which is scheduled to take place from October 15 through October 25, 2020. The annual opening symposium will be held on Friday October 16. Please mark the dates on your calendar!

Starting from a modest 20 participants, Asia Week San Francisco Bay Area reached its highest number of participants last year - with 45 participating organizations joined this platform. This diverse group included 9 museums, 10 galleries and dealers, 3 auction houses, 5 institutions, and 18 other art and culture organizations, presenting 58 programs across the entire SF Bay Area from Sonoma to San Jose.

Starting from 2015, Asia Week San Francisco Bay Area has been an occasion for our community to join together in celebration of Asia Art and appreciation for cultural diversity. Asia Week SFBA will continue this mission and work with its partners and participants to present another event-filled week for its 2020 edition.

For information about how to register as a partner for Asia Week San Francisco Bay Area, please visit: <http://www.asiaweeksf.com/about>

About Asia Week San Francisco Bay Area

Every October, Asia Week San Francisco Bay Area brings together artists, collectors and scholars from around the world to showcase and promote Asian Art. The programs are committed to furthering the public's appreciation of the unique complexities of Asian culture, heritage, art philosophy and history.

Contact

Lily Chen

Event Manager, Asia Week SFBA

lchen@asiaweeksf.com

(650) 259 -2100